SPECIALISTS ANNOY HER.

Writers of "Human Interest" Stories For "Yellow Journals" Bring Nervousness to Careworn Woman.

(Special to the "News.")

Washington, Nov. 9.—The witnesses called by the defense in the case against Mrs. Anna Bradley are beginning to arrive in this city and the identity of the witnesses reveals, in some measure, the nature of the testimony to be introduced by the defense. It is made clear that the entire story of the woman's life as it became entangled with that of former Senator Arthur Brown will be laid bare in court.

The Rev. David Utter is among the witnesses. He was called from Denver, the Rev. Utter was formerly minister in the Unitarian church of Salt Lake City, of which Mrs. Bradley was a communicant. The affidavits of Mrs. Bradley and Senator Brown were laid before the minister years ago, and at one time he went from Denver to Salt Lake at the request of Mrs. Bradley to attempt a settlement of their trouble and to endeavor to induce Senator Brown to marry Mrs. Bradley. It is believed that by this witness more than any other, the many trying ordeals through which Mrs. Bradley passed in her relationship with Senator Brown will be brought out and the influences which worked on her mind will be laid before the jury by this witness.

COL. M. M. KAIGHN THERE.

Col. Maurice M. Kaighn and Mrs. Kaighn are also in the city, having been called to the city by the defense. Into the care of Col. Kaighn, who is a well known Salt Lake lawyer, and a federal officeholder, was entrusted many of Mrs. Bradley's affairs. It was he who was entrusted by her with the written statement given her by Senator Brown, in which he admitted that he was the father of her two sons, Arthur and Montgomery.

LAW PARTNER ALSO.

Henry P. Henderson, formerly a law partner of Senator Brown, is in the city as a witness for the defense. Mr. Henderson is said to be a good lawyer, and as his law office is across the street from Mr. Kaighn's, he is likely to be present.
